

Resetting your tablet

What happens

- Clears the tablet
- Makes the tablet like new
- Clears all passwords, data, photos everything
- Puts the tablet back to factory re-set.
- Will log you out of all accounts

Factory data reset

- Make sure you want to do this! It cant be undone
- Will clear ALL data from the tablet
- Will put ALL settings back to factory settings (when it was first bought)

To factory reset

- 1) Go to all apps
- 2) Select settings
- 3) Go to the backup & reset option
- 4) Choose factory data reset

Make sure you know your tablet Gmail

Eg. Tulip77.boot@gmail.com

Setting your tablet up

- 1) Make sure the language is English(UK) then click next
- 2) Select talktalk internet and put password in QXCCC9X4, then next
- 3) Set the time and date and make sure the time zone is correct, click next
- 4) Tick the T&C'S and agree to log data then click next
- 5) Yes you have a google account
- 6) Enter your Gmail address, eg. Tulip77.boot@gmail.com

Setting up your tablet

- 7) Enter the password it should be. Slipper2014 or slipper2014
- 8) Untick back up your data to a google account and click the arrow
- 9) Enter the name of the tablet and click next (buttercup, tulip ect)
- 10) Enter the last name Boot and click done
- 11) Choose skip
- 12) Choose skip

Setting up your tablet

- 13) Make sure smart stay and adapt display are both turned on, it will be in green and click next
- 14) Name your tablet, eg. Tulip boot and click finish

Your tablet is now all set back Up!

Things to try and complete

- Screen time out – 5 or 10 mins
- Font on one you like
- Font size to the one you feel is correct
- Delete the widgets from the home screen
- Download Gmail and sign in the email will be in the format as below
- Email: tulip77.boot@gmail.com
- Password: Slipper2014 or slipper2014